Item No 4

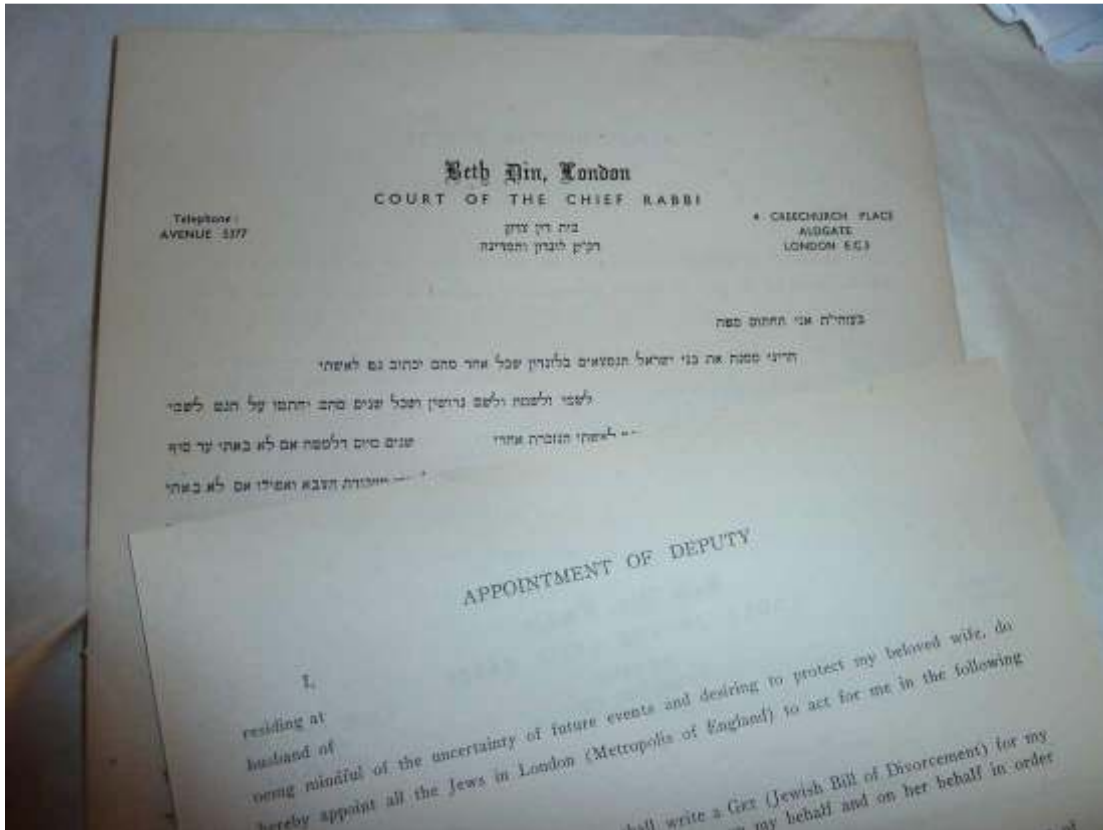

Item No 1

1. Leivi Salitan (editor). Unzer Weg [Unser Weg] (Our Way) - Periodical Bound Volume containing 51 issues Munich, Central Committee of Liberated Jews of Bavaria under direct supervision of Military authorities, 1945-1946. [9865]

A bound volume containing a continuous run of 51 issues of this newspaper from 12th October 1945 to the 15 November 1946. The Text is in Yiddish with a couple of English supplements. "To acquaint the American military authorities with the problems of the Shearit HaPletah, the first edition of the paper had an English section the summarized the key articles. Some subsequent editons, too contained English summaries of important articles" (see Grobman, Alex - Rekindling the Flame - page 122) . It is folio, 43cm, the last issue is larger and has been folded at edges to fit in. The pages are yellowed, the spine is worn and torn and the first couple of pages are loose. It contains some illustrations, photographs, cartoons etc. Photographs of the DP camps, personalities etc. There is information about life in the camps about the situation in Mandatory Palestine and then there are cultural articles and guides to learning Hebrew. A remarkable historical document full of social and political history of the Survivors. "Unzer Weg (Our Way) is the publication of the Jewish Displaced Persons Camps (Ex-Political prisoners) of Bavaria. It is published by the Central Committee of Liberated Jews of Bavaria under the direct supervision of Military authorities" Editorial Board: Leivi Salitan, Editor; Chaplain Abraham J Klausner, USA; Mr Eli Rock AJDC-UNRRA Director; Dr Z Grinberg, Dr witz Grinhaus, M Puczyg; J Ratner and J Leibowitz. Unzer Weg was the most widely read and influential of the newspapers for the the Displaced Persons in Germany. The US Jewish Chaplain Rabbi Abraham Klausner was instrumental in setting it up. He arranged for the Hebrew type to come from the Stempel Publishing House in Frankfurt they also got permission for new type to be cast. Still there was not enough type to print the whole issue and each page had to be set separately and then printed and th eprocess repeated. (see Grobman, Alex - Rekindling the Flame - page 121/122) £1,500
