Item 2

2. Schatz, Boris / Joseph Klausner. - Boris Schatz His Life and Work Monography. Jerusalem B'ne Bezalel 1925 [14893]
Folio, 40cm, Decorative folio with text book in English and Hebrew, 36 + 28 pp plus 40 black and white plates, each of which has an English and Hebrew translation. The folio has an autobiography of the Jewish artist and sculptor Boris Schatz (1867 – 1932), founder of the Betzalel School of Art and one of the most important influences on Jewish art in Palestine. In this bilingual monograph, he relates his works to his life and ideals. The work is prefaced by historian Joseph Klausner and the text pages also feature some illustrations and text decoration. The text is in an orange softcover booklet, placed along with the plates. Slight wear to slipcase, tiny bit of foxing to text booklet, overall very good condition. £450

Item 3

3. Schneur, Zalman - Struck, Hermann (illustrator). - Vilna [Vilnah Poemah Metzuyeret] An Illustrated Poem. Berlin Verlag Hasefer 1923 [14986]

Original decorative red gilt cloth. 26 x 20 cm. A poem in Hebrew by the writer and poet, Zalman Schneur (1887- 1959). Illustrated by Hermann Struck (1876 - 1944), a Jewish artist most noted for his etchings. The poem was actually written in 1917 and the drawings were made by Struck in Vilna during the First World War. The poet and artist worked independently. This is Number 59 out of a limited edition of 1,700 copies. The illustrations are in 3 colours. A bit of wear to cloth, a little piece is worn away on the back board. Previous owner's stamp on title page. A little bit of foxing and rear hinge is shaken. £175

4. Morpugo, A. V. ed A Luzzatto. - Pregchiere Che Si Recitano Dagl' Israeliti di Trieste Durante L'Invasione Del Cholera Asiatico Recate in Italiano. Trieste 1855 [7240]

A Prayer for Protection Against Cholera in 19th Century Italy. First edition. Blue plain wrappers, 8vo. Text in Hebrew and Italian. 14 pp Some wear. 6. Jewish National Fund. - White Paper Or Bible? Which Will Prevail. New Palestine Land Ordinances. The Reply of the Jewish National Fund. London, Jewish National Fund, [c 1940] [5127] 26cm, 4 pp, some soiling, a little tearing at fore-edge but with no loss of text. No copies are listed on COPAC and Worldcat lists one microform copy at the NYPL. A rare ephemeral item. The publication of the infamous "White Paper on Palestine" caused a furor amongst the Jewish and Zionist community who felt Britain was betraying the terms of the Palestine Mandate. There were a number of pamphlets and statements by Jewish organisations criticising the the 'White Paper'. This pamphlet contains Mr Ussishkein's message on the subject. The first issue of the Iton Rishmi – The Official Journal published on the first day of the State of Israel contains a clause annulling the 'White Paper.' £95

7. Liverpool Ladies' Zionist Association and Young Men's Zionist Association Syllabus of Lectures 1905-1906. Liverpool, Young Men's Zionist Association 1905 [6333]

10. Poale Zion. - Jewish Labour's Case: Memorandum submitted to the Anglo-American Committee of Enquiry on European Jewry and Palestine by the General Federation of Jewish Labour in Palestine (Histadruth): March, 1946. London, Poale Zion - Jewish Socialist Labour Party 1946 [5882]

Original light blue wrappers with red lettering, 21.5cm, 64 pp, very good condition. States on the verso of the title page - This edition is an abridged version of the original memorandum to the Anglo-American Committee of Enquiry.

The Anglo Committee of Enquiry was appointed in 1945 and started hearings of evidence in January 1946. It was set up to explore the Palestine issue and the condition of the Jews still left in Europe. Numerous individuals gave evidence and many organizations submitted reports and memoranda to the committee. This is the memorandum submitted by the Histadruth. £75

11. Stears, J M. - "As Birds Flying" or Jerusalem 1917: The Most Amazing Event of Our Times. London, The Covenant Publishing Co 1943 [6278]

Original wrappers, 17.5cm, 19 pp, wrappers worn, and some soiling and some creasing. The return of the Jews to Palestine was significant to many religious Christians who produced pamphlets discussing the fulfillment of biblical prophecies. £35

12. Masterman, E W G. - The Deliverance of Jerusalem. London, Hodder and Stoughton 1918 [6280]

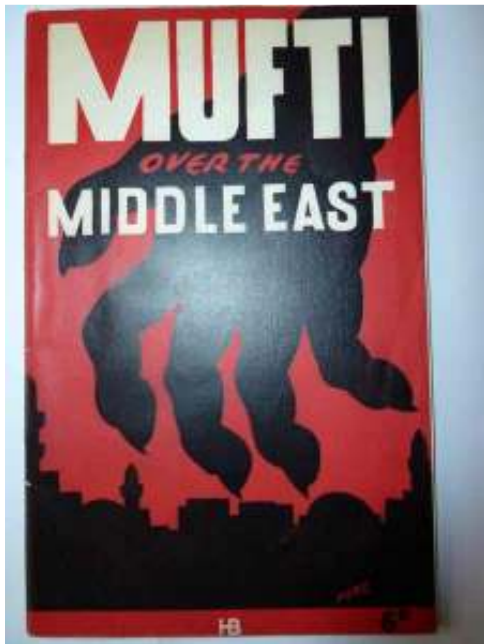

Original wrappers, 21.5cm, 51 pp, good condition, spine worn. Contains illustrations and maps including a panoramic map and a photograph of Allenby entering Jerusalem. £65

Item 13

13. McDonald, James G. - Palestine to the Rescue - Life or Death for a People. London, Jewish Agency for Palestine, c 1943 [6844]

Original wrappers, cover title, 18cm, 7 pp, a little soiling to top left corner of front wrapper, but overall very good condition. James Grover McDonald served for 2 years as the League of Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and resigned in 1936 in protest against the failure of the world to take proper action. This is an impassioned plea for action with several suggestions both short and long term to save as many Jews as possible from the Nazis and resettle them in the longer term. Palestine is key but he also explores the possibilities of the uninhabited parts of North Western Australia and parts of Africa. £75

14. Waters, M. P. - Mufti over the Middle East. London, H. Barber 1942 [6858]
Original wrappers, 22cm, 36 pp, very good condition. There is a striking graphic on the front wrapper. Inside there is a photograph of the Mufti meeting Hitler at the Reich Chancellery in Berlin in 1941. M P Waters was a pseudonym for Moshe Pearlman. This pamphlet focuses on the damaging impact of the Mufti and his active support of the Nazi regime. It also discusses at length Arab criticism of the Mufti, most notably that by Fakri Bey Nashashibi. The Mufti intimidated and organised the murder of Arabs who did not support him.
This was Sir Leon Simon's copy. Sir Leon Simon was an active Zionist, a member of the Palestine Commission in 1918 and the Palestine Education Commission in 1945. He translated the Balfour Declaration into Hebrew and was a protégé of Weizmann and Abad Haam. £150
