1. WASKOW, ARTHUR I. THE FREEDOM SEDER A NEW

HAGGADAH FOR PASSOVER Washington, The Micah Press 1969

First edition. Original card wrappers, 48 pp, 12.5cm. Illustrated by Lloyd McNeill. An alternative Passover Haggadah, focusing on the freedom and rights of man, entirely in English. The editor mentions in the introduction the assassination of Martin Luther King (March 1968) and citations of his words are integrated into the Haggadah alongside citations from Mahatma Gandhi, Hannah Arendt, Buber, Emanuel Ringblum (about the Warsaw Ghetto) and others. Numerous texts concern the rights of African Americans in the USA and other current events. The illustrations were made by the American Jazz flautist and artist Lloyd McNeill. Apparently this is the first Passover Haggadah ever illustrated by an African-American artist. OCLC 8112470 [ref: 23275] £750

THE JEWS OF AUSTRIA
Population; Refugees.
In 1938, when Hitler invaded Austria, there were about 190,000 Jews in the country, or 3% of the population, distributed approximately as follows (census of 1933-34):
	Total population	Jews
Vienna	1,874,130	176,034
Lower Austria	1,509,076	7,716
Upper Austria	902,318	966

	6,715,507	191,458

The Jews were concentrated in the cities of Vienna, Linz, Graz, Innsbruck, Neustadt, Neunkirchen, Eisenstadt, Mattersburg, Mattersdorf, and Deutsch-Wagram. The number of Jews living in Austria in 1938, according to the interpretation of the Nuremberg laws, was about 250,000.

The number of Jews left in Austria in 1943 was estimated varyingly between 5,000 and 15,000. Some 70,000 had been deported to Poland or Auschwitz (Terezin) in Czechoslovakia. About 100,000 emigrated to other countries; approximately 50,000 to the United States; 20,000 to Great Britain and the Dominions; 15,000 to Palestine; 15,000 to South America and elsewhere.

31. BOARD OF DEPUTIES OF BRITISH JEWS THE JEWS IN EUROPE: THEIR POST-WAR SITUATION PRESENTED TO THE ANGLO-AMERICAN COMMITTEE OF ENQUIRY. London Board of Deputies of British Jews 1946

Original wrappers, 21.5cm, 38 pp, very good condition. The Anglo-American Committee of Inquiry was a joint British and American attempt in 1946 to agree upon a policy on the admission of Jews to Palestine. The Committee was tasked to consult representative Arabs and Jews on the problems of Palestine, and to make other recommendations "as may be necessary" to the British and American governments. The Committee's recommendations addressed the matter of immigration and the future government of Palestine. Although one of many committees of inquiry which examined the situation in Palestine, the Anglo-American committee was the only one to also examine the conditions of Jews in Europe.

Original wrappers, 21cm, 20 pp, some rusting to staples but overall very good condition.

"A Demonstration, organised by the English Zionist Federation, to thank the British Government for the San Remo decision to incorporate the Balfour Declaration for the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine in the Treaty of Peace with Turkey was held at the Albert Hall, London on Monday night, July 12th, 1920. It was the most extraordinary meeting in the annals of Anglo-Jewry. Long before the meeting there was something in the nature of a Jewish pilgrimage westward and the vast hall was besieged by a huge crowd. Fully, 30,000 applications had been received for admission, and many who were too late for tickets came in the hope that place would be found for them. The Hall holds more than 10,000 and very soon it was packed from arena to top most gallery....." (from the first page of the pamphlet) Contains speeches by Lord Rothschild, Arthur Balfour, Nahum Sokolow, Chaim Weizmann and others. [ref: 23170]

1946*

Original wrappers, 27cm, 28 pp. Some soiling to wrappers. A strongly pro-Zionist, pro-Jewish pamphlet. Contains a critique of the 'infamous' 1939 White Paper and criticism of the notion that Palestine was promised to Arabs and Jews. There are several other articles strongly supporting the Jewish position. OCLC 3302565

49. [HOLOCAUST] MATISYAHU BEN SIMCHAN OF MOGADOR KETZIDA D'HITLER

[Casablanca] [1943?]

Ketzida di Hitler, [piyut of Megillat Hitler, in Judeo-Arabic]

This katzida recounts Hitler's conquests and domination over Europe and North Africa, the Nazi plot to annihilate the Jews, their defeat in North African territories, and the return of the Jews to Palestine. The katzida was published with the approval of the regional censorship authority (Visa fait par le Service du Contrôle Régional des Informations). The opening is in Hebrew and follows the poetic form of Mi Khamokha hymns, as they developed in their North African expression. The remainder of the text is in Judeo-Moroccan Arabic and is written in the style of the traditional Moroccan katsida. As is known, the Mi Khamokha piyyutim composed by Jewish poets in North Africa were devotional poems recounting miraculous events experienced by their communities. Most followed the model of Rabbi Yehuda Halevi, who recounted the miracle of Purim in his hymn for Shabbat Zakhor. There seem to be slight variants of it. See Michal Saraf – The Hitler Scroll of North Africa, for further information.

50. COHEN, ISRAEL THE JEWS IN GERMANY REPRINTED FROM THE QUARTERLY REVIEW, VOL.261, No. 517, JULY 1933

London John Murray 1933

Original wrappers, 22cm, 20pp, sewn, age tanning to pages, good copy. Cohen starts off "The persecution of the Jews is only one facet of the 'National Revolution' in Germany, but it is a tragedy of such magnitude and far-reaching significance that it calls for separate consideration." He already notes this in July 1933.
